In Offering To-Day This Sale of

Dainty Lingerie Blouses

We Have Responded to the Insistent Demand of Richmond Women for

Smart Waists for Early Spring

in soft folds front and back. figured crepe are combined with Baby Irish and the new

These exceedingly smart models combine several novel features. Shirring across drop-shoulder, trimmed with insertions of Venice,

Other blouses of voile and crepe show vestees of net, finished with frills. Hand embroidery and Baby Irish insertion. $2.45 Marquisette and volle are beautifully combined with shadow

The low collars give a most becoming line to these effective

Social and Personal

Richmond society is much intersted in the marriage of Miss Mary Offman, of Harrisonburg, and Taxis Harris Epes, of Richmond and Backstone, which will be celebrated this evening at $130 o'clock in the Mthodist Episcopal Church, South, if Harrisonburg, the Rev. H. M. Caner, D. D., officiating The wedding fill be a brilliant social event, and degrations for the ceremony at the churce will be a recention for the bridgingary and the bridge will be ring bearer. Allan the bride, will be ring bearer. a brilliant social event, and degrations for the ceremony at the churc's will be most elaborate. William B. Dutrow, an uncle of the bride, will kive her away, and she will be attended by her only sister, Miss Juliet Chiman, as maid of honor. The other attendants include Mrs. M. R. Sutherlad, of Richmond, who will be dame of honor, and Miss Geraldine Wallace, of Blackstone, who will be bridesmai. Virginia

> Between Meal Btes

Dunlep Flours

who will be bridesmai. Virginia Mr. Werth Engaged.

Mr. Werth Engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beal Cockey, of Lyal Park, near Pikesville, Md., announce the engagement of their daughter, Saille Anne Warrield, to Matthew Fontaine Maury Werth, of Vancouver, B. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Werth, of Richmond. The wedding will take place in June.

The announcement is of great interest in Richmond and throughout the State, since Mr. Werth belongs to one of the most distinguished families in the South. His bride-to-be is equally preminent socially in Maryland, and their wedding will be an important event of the early summer season. A number of Richmond people will attend the ceremony.

he Westmoreland Club will give the ifth of a series of informal dances to be members, their families and guests a Saturday evening from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. These dances are delightful affairs, and a number of prominent people attend them each week.

people attend them each week.
Enterthined in Washington.
Says the Washington Post of yesterday.
"Mrs. John Bankhead was hostess at a beautiful buffet luncheon at the Willlard Tuesday in compliment to Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall. Mrs. John Miller Horton, who was to have given the luncheon with Mrs. Bankhead, was detained at her home at Buffalo by illness in her family. Receiving with Mrs. Bankhead and Mrs. Marshall were Mrs. Joseph E. Thropp, who represented Mrs. Horton, and Miss Nannie Randolph Heth. "The red room where the luncheon was served was elaborately decorated with roses and carnations, a tall basket of pink and white carnations and a with roses and carnations, a tall basket of pink and white carnations and a screen covered with trailing vines and pink and white roses forming the background for the receiving party. The table at which were seated Mrs Marshall, Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, Mrs. Lindley M. Garrison, Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. Bankhead, Mrs. Thropp, and Miss Heth had as centropiece a silver basket filled with pink roses. A large gilt basket of the roses adorned the buffet table.

"Assisting Mrs. Bankhead were Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis, Mrs. Claude Swanson, Mrs. Robert Owen, Mrs. William Bailey Lamar, Mrs. H. D. Clayton, Mrs. Hubert Dent, Mrs. McChord, Mrs. Micon, Mrs. Hubert Dent, Mrs. McChord, Mrs. Micon, Mrs. Lucian Smith, Mrs. Langley, Mrs. Rufus Day, Mrs. J. W. Folk, Mrs. Reisinger, and Mrs. Alden."

Among Mrs. Bankhead's guests from Richmond were Mrs. John Skelton Williams, Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Payne, Mrs. Reed, Miss Allice Reed, and Miss Elizabeth Selden.

The regular weekly meeting of the Elizabeth Selden.

Suffrage Meeting.

The regular weekly meeting of the Equal Suffrage League of Richmond will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at headquarters. Mrs. William E. Harris will make an address on the subject, "Woman and Chivalry—Is Chivalry a Substitute for Justice?" Miss Lou Belle Catesby Jones will introduce the speaker, and tea will be served after the lecture. The public is invited.

The Helping Circle of King's Daughters will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the \(\lambda \).sses Gary, 229 North Twenty-second Street. The attention of members is called to the change of date.

is invited.
Meetings To-Day.

207-9 North Sixth.

VADEN & CARNEY

Stay Young

Badly fitted, uncomfortable shees cause frowns, frowns bring wrinkles, and wrinkles indicate age Lots of women stay young

A PAIR OF SILK HOSE FREE

by wearing Queen Quality Shoes.

with each pair. This week only.

H Easter Flowers "of Guaranteed Freshness"

Hammond

ing the latest dances. Miss Wilma Winn and Ernest Evans will probably be seen in Richmond Easter week, when Mrs. Pace Groner expects to make a tour of Southern cities.

Richmond people at the McAlpin Hotel, in New York, this week were: P. B. Traylor, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wade, Stuart C. Leake Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Williams, R. Enslow, J. E. Cox, Thomas wheelright, Wilfred Jessup, and C. M.

Continental Ball at Richmond. Several hundred fashionable society people attended the big Continental ball last evening at the Richmond Hotel under the direction of Mile. Nora-White. The affair, which was modeled after similar entertainments held in cafes and famous hotels abroad, was one of the most interesting of the ser-ies given at the Richmond this season, and took place in the beautiful ball-room. Confettl and favors added to the charm of the scene, and many handsomely gowned women were noted. Groups of paims and pay trees were arranged as background for the many arranged as background for the many tables scattered about the cleared space in the centre for dancing, and yellow snapdragons and daffodlis were used everywhere. Mile, White and Raymond Massey again did the "Maxixe," as a special dance, with great applause from the guests present. Mile, white wore a lovely imported gown of White wore a lovely imported gown of pink chiffon taffeta, made with a girdle of rose-pink brocade and finished with illusion draperies and a hig butterfly bow in the back. Her flowers were pink orchids, and she were a cap of real lace with streamers of pink chif-ton and trimmed in thy pink rose-

Another ball will be held at the Richmond on Wednesday next. Returned from Washington.

Dansant on Saturday.

A great many novel and intertaining plans have been made by the committee in charge of the "the-dansant" to be held at the Jefferson Hotel on Saturday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock under the auspices of Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, do special dancing for the entertain ment of the guests, and there will be a contest dance with a huge silver cup and several ribbons to be awarded fo

A SKIN OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER Dr. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM

Ferd. T. Hopkins & Sen, Props., 37 Great Jenes St., N.Y.C.

Solid Gold Standard Maintained 40 Years The Nowlan Co.

as many articles of an inferior quality are sold.

921 E. Main Street. CHIEFFE TO BEEN SEEFERS

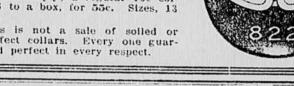

HALHIMER'S Sale of

Men's Collars made and 4-ply; a regular 15c collar; 6 to a box, for 55c. Sizes, 13

This is not a sale of soiled or imperfect collars. Every one guaranteed perfect in every respect.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ASHLAND NEWS NOTES

Mrs. J. M. Ellison and Miss Elizabeth Ellison have returned to their home in Crozet, after a visit to relatives and Mrs. Arthur Scrivenor is leaving to-lay for Norfolk, where she will be the cuest of friends for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Sutherland and Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax Jones, of this city, are spending several days in Har-

Mrs. James F. Minor, who has been isiting relatives at the University of irginia, has returned to Richmond.

Mrs. J. Colin McRae, who has been the guest of Mrs. Andrew S. Browne, in Norfolk, since visiting in this city, has returned to her home in Asheville, Misses Grace and Marian Neily are leaving for their home in Catonsville, Md., on Saturday, after spending a month with Miss E. Fehsenfeld in this city.

J. W. Everett, who has been visiting friends in Charlottesville for a few runted by stock manipulation.

friends in Charlottesville for a few rupted by stock manipulation.

The only way the National Signalling
Company can remain in business is by ays, has returned to the city.

Miss Elizabeth Jernigan, of Nerfolk, using a nontuned system. This. spent the week-end as the guest of friends in Richmond. cording to an officer of the Marconi Company, would be "like sending a ship to sea without a bottom."

Mrs. Bond, of this city, is visiting Mrs. L. T. Macon at her home at the University of Virginia.

William Hope, who has been in Rich-

Parrish Trant has returned to his home in North Carolina, after a brief stay in Richmond and Norfolk.

Hutter—Rodes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lynchburg, Vra., March 18.—A wedding of great local interest was celebrated to-night at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the principals being Miss Ella Ambler Rodes, daughter of the late Lafayette P. Rodes, and James Booker Hutter, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hutter, all of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph B. Dunn, D. D., rector of that parish.

Miss Frances Rodes, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Wylle Cook, of Norfolk, was the best man. The ushers were Dexter Hobbe. Jr., Edward Hutter, Walter Smith and Ailen S. Gish. The groomsmen and bridesmalds were Robert James, Abbott Henderson, Jellis Nicholas, Malcolin Griffin, C. S. Hutter, Jr., and Logwood Hutter, and Misses Claudine Hutter, Mary Appleton, Eugenia Griffin, Annie Hobbie, Mary Reed and Lillth Nowlin.

The bride was given away by her uncle, Dr. Edward C. Ambler, of Roanoke.

Among the guests from out of town were: Judge and Mrs. Wingfield Griffines. The Standard C. Ambler, of Roanoke.

Among the guests from out of town were: Judge and Mrs. Wingfield Griffines. The Ashland Music Club met on Monday morning in the Parish House, and one of the most attractive pro-

Wylle Cook, of Norfolk, was the best man. The ushers were Dexter Hobbe. Jr. Edward Hutter, Walter Smith and Allen S. Gish. The groomsmen and Diridesmalds were Robert James, Abbott Henderson, Jellis Nicholas, Malcolm Griffin, C. S. Hutter, Jr., and Logwood Hutter, and Missos Claudine Hutter, Malcolm Griffin, of Salemine Malcolm Griffin, of Salemine, Missos Eugenia and Linth Nowlin. The bride wased and Linth Nowlin. The bride wased and Linth Nowlin. The bride wased and Linth Nowlin. Among the guests from out of town were: Judge and Mrs. Wingfield Griffin, of Salem; Mrs. H. O. Humphreys and Malcolm Griffin, of Salem; Mrs. H. O. Humphreys and Malcolm Griffin, of Salem; Mrs. H. O. Humphreys and Malcolm Griffin, of Salem; Mrs. H. O. Humphreys and Mrs. Dexter Hobbie, Jr., George Chancy, Murray Hammond, Clare Snyder, of Roanoke Miss Annie Hobbie, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Hobbie, Jr., George Chancy, Murray Hammond, Clare Snyder, of Roanoke Miss Annie Hobbie, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Hobbie, Jr., George Chancy, Murray Hammond, Clare Snyder, of Roanoke Miss Young, Miss Crawford and Miss. Ward, of Sweetbrier College; Mrs. 21. Hott Booker, of Farmiville; Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Hobbie, Jr., George Chancy, Murray Hammond, Clare Snyder, of Roanoke Miss Annie Hobbie, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Hobbie, Jr., George Chancy, Murray Hammond, Clare Snyder, of Roanoke Miss Annie Hobbie, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Hobbie, Jr., George Chancy, Murray Hammond, Clare Snyder, of Roanoke Miss Annie Hobbie, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Hobbie, Jr., George Chancy, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Hobbie, Jr., George C

FLOOD-PORTNER WEDDING IN APRIL

Ceremony at All Souls' Church Will Be Followed by Large Reception.

Reception.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington March 18.—Congressman
Henry Deliaware Flood, of Appomaticx, Va., and Miss Anna Valare Portner, daughter of the late millionaire Robert B. Portner, of Manassax, are to be married just one month from to-day.—April 18. It was announced here to-day. The wedding is to take place at All Souls Church, at Fourteenth and L.
Streets, Washington, at 5 oclock in the alterneon of that day.
Following the wedding cersmontes a large reception will be held at Miss Portner's apartment in the Highlands, to which the greater part of Washington and Virginia officialdom and society will be invited. A heiel honeymoon will be taken, the length and destination to be determined by the conditions in the House of Representatives at that time.

An unauthorized report was circulated last summer a cate in the fall as the time of the wedding. When the time mentioned arrived it was stated that the wedding had been postponed owing to the lilness of Miss Fortner's siter.

Mr. Flood is forty-eign! years old, and has been in the liouse of Representatives since the beginning of the Fifty-seventh Congress, Miss Portner is twenty-three years old.

New of Erederickshure.

News of Fredericksburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fredericksburg, Va., March 18.—At a called meeting of a committee of the Fredericksburg Chapter, U. D. C., it was decided to offer a Virginia State badge pin for the best paper written by a member of the chapter containing incidents and facts connected with the War Between the States. The paper must contain from 2,000 to 2,500 words, and must be in hand by the Fourth Monday in September, when the papers will be read before a committee to decide upon the winner.

A telegram has been received hero from the hygienic laboratory at Washington stating that the examination of the head of the dog sent there a few days ago showed that the dog unquestionably had the rables.

Joseph Byrne, who was bitten by the mad dog here on Saturday, left yesterday for Richmond to take the Pasteur treatment.

Judge John T. Goolrick, of the Corporation Court, has granted an absolute divorce to Mrs. Daisy Knight from her husband, Wesley Knight, Mr. Knight to pay the costs of the suit and Mrs. Knight is to have the care and custody of the children.

Stuart Will Address Students.
Blacksburg, Va., March 18.—Governor Henry C. Stuart has accepted the invitation from President Eggleston to address the graduating class at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute on Wednesday, June 17.

AT END OF TRAIL WILL FIND SLAYER Fine Glassware

Detective Burns Says Track of Mary Phagan's Murderer Is Plain.

HOPES TO SOLVE MYSTERY

Jim Conley's Lawyer Demands That People See Prisoner Only by His Permission.

Atlanta, Ga., March 18.—Indications that William J. Burns is rapidly ap-proaching a climax in his investigation of the murder of Mary Phagan are seen in statements by the famous detective made to-day. Burns declared that there is no question that he will be able to clear up the element of mystery that has surrounded the case from

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, March 18.—United States District Judge Van Vechten Veeder in a lengthy decision to-day upheld Marconf's basic patents in a suit brought conl's basic patents in a suit brought of his operations that points to him as unerringly as would the blood-stained finger of his victim. In some cases the track is plainer and the trail by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company against the National Signalling Company (Fessenden System).

The culmination of this suit is an addition to the succession of tegal victories obtained by the Marconi Comcases the track is plainer and the trail ensier to follow than in others, but in all of them the track is there.

"In the Phagan case I have found that the murderer left a plain track There are many things that point to the murderer. I have found the trail and my work will be to follow it to its conclusion, where we will find the murderer. pany in every civilized country. It was learned to-night that the victory would be followed up by similar suits against the United States government and other infringing systems. against the United States government and other infringing systems.

The suit just settled by Judge Veeder was based on the patents of Marconi and Sir Oliver Lodge, in the realms of which wireless murderer.
"Notwithstanding the various charges that have been made, I think Solicitor-General Dorsey has been absolutely honest in this case, and that he never would have proscuted a man he did not thoroughly believe to be guilty But, however, keen or smart a man may be, his vision is liable to be dis-torted."

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
Ashland, Va., March 18.—The Hanover Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold the regular monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Walter Sydnor. Arrangements for the fifth district convention, which meets here in May, will be completed, and a program will also be given.

Miss Ross, of Baltimore, who has Judge L. S. Roan, who presided at the trial of Leo M. Frank, superintendent of the National Pencil Company, and under sentence of death for the murder, issued an order at the close of Frank's trial to keep visitors away from the negro, unless they had permission to see him from the negro's lawyer. Conley afterwards was sentenced to one year's imprisonment. tenced to one year's imprisonment.

CHILDREN DECLARED WHITE

Wedding Gifts in beautiful articles in Cut Glass which make pleasing bridal

In our large glass room you can readily select such a gift without exceeding the price you An attractive gift may be had at $1.50 and upward.

Schwarzschild Brothers Richmond's Leading Jewelers,

Second and Broad Streets.

SERIOUS ILLNESS OF MRS. WILSON

Family Become Greatly Alarmed at Condition of President's Wife.

VEIL OF MYSTERY DRAWN

Daughters and Other Members of Household Cancel Social Engagements.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Washington, March 18 .- The illness of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President, took a serious turn this atternoon and her family became greatly alarmed at her condition.

Just how serious this relapse was in may be, his vision is liable to be distorted."

Mr. Burns declared that he considered as very important the evidence which H. F. Becker, now of New York, formerly master mechanic of the pencil factory, is reported as being able to give. Becker is ready to testify regarding the paper on which one of the notes was written, that it was a piece of trash paper which had been used months before the murder.

Written demand on the Fulton County jail authorlites to keep persons from visiting James Conley, the negro convicted as an accessory after the fact in the murder of Mary Phagan, the factory girl, unless they have his permission, was made here late to-day by William M. Smith, the negro's attorney.

Judge L. S. Roan, who presided at the irritish embasey today and night there in constant at-tendance on Mrs. Wilson. The family did not leave her bedside, except for dinner, and it was noticed that they returned as soon as possible to he:

gone what is described as a slight operation several days ago, as the re-sult of her fall in the White House several weeks ago.

Baldwin—Barley,
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., March 18.—Miss Anna Elizabeth Barley, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Louis C. Barley, and Frazier W. Baidwin, formerly of Chicago, but now of this city, will be married April 15 at Christ Episcopal Church by Rev. W. J. Morton, rector.

DPN Signa Ph Epsolun

Grave a St. Pat
Grave a Rottom and Miss Mary Josephine De-Roisne, Rottom and Miss Mary Josephine De-Roisne, Bottom and Miss Mary Josephine De-Roisne, Roisne, both of Beach, Chesterfield County, Va. were married here to-day by Magistrate D. E. Stainback.

Committee to Make Inquiry.

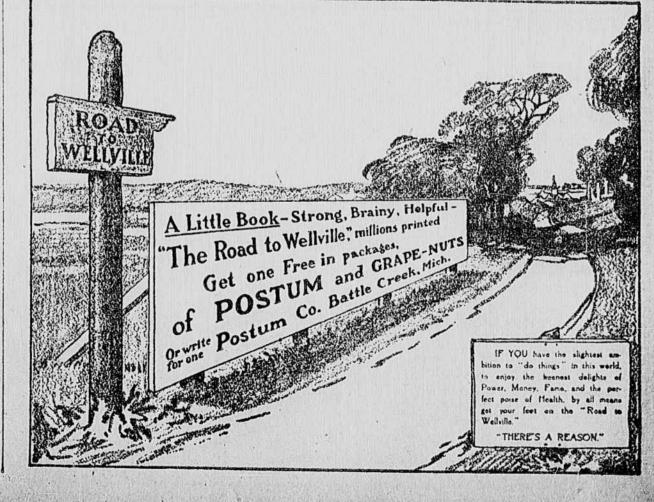

London, March 18.—Premier Asquith to-day promised an Irish deputation that he would appoint a committee of inquiry to investigate the abandonment of the port of Queenstown by big steamships plying between England and the United States.

The deputation was headed by the Lord Mayor of Dublin and the Lord Mayor of Cork.

Induiry.

Committee to Make Inquiry.

London, March 18.—Premier Asquith to-day promised an Irish deputation of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company. Mr. Hopkins was vice-president, and succeeds to the office made vacant by the death of Walter A. Post two years ago. Mr. Per-Buston was general manager, and is made vice-president and general manager.

of more expensive blouses. Val. and shadow laces. A variety of styles. 34 to $2.98 blouses of figured crepe, dimity, voile and accordion-plaited marquisette. Insertion, scamed. Val., Swys insertion and shadow laces. Three-quarter and full length slieves. 34 to 44. $1.98

Mrs. Newton McVeigh, Mrs. A. J.
Montague and Mrs. Royall have returned from Washington, where they have been for several days as the guests of Mrs. Charles H. Senff, of New York. Mrs. Senff has left for her home in the North, after spending several weeks in Richmond at the Jefferson Hotel, where she was much entertained.

Charles McVeigh will see the second of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Haley, in Waynesboro.

Misses Grace and Marian Neily are leaving for their home in Catonsville, Md., on Saturday, after spending a charles McVeigh will arrive in the city shortly to spend the week-end with his mother on Park Avenue Mr. McVeigh expects to sail next month for an extended stay abroad, and will go at once to Egypt, where he will remain for several months.

Md., month city.

and numbers of tables have already been reserved. This is the first of a mond for a few days series to be given by the chapter, and turned to Portsmouth. decorations will be unusually attrac-tive. Mile. Nora White and Miss French Patton have been invited to

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

THE STREET, BUT OF STREET, STR

Deal exclusively in Fine Solid Gold and Platinum Jewelry of the latest and most unique designs, and have in stock many beautiful gifts as reasonable in price

Leading Jewelers

